

The intention of EMPATHY?

To create connections that tear down the walls of separation.

To see through the eyes of another

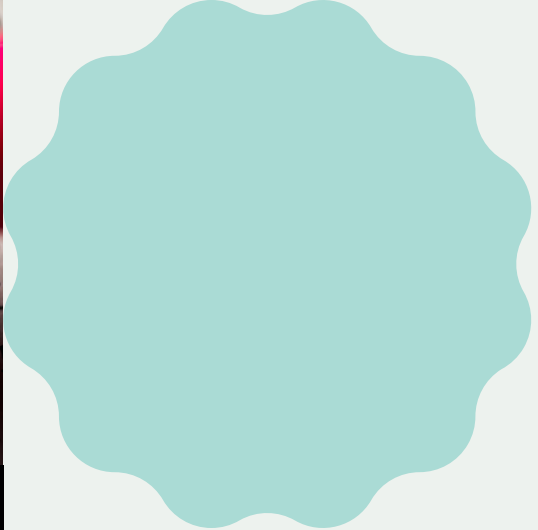

By being Quirious
Suspending judgement
Listening from within

We create a dialogue enabling multiple points of view to be seen from a new perspective because all disruptive challenges require us to go further

In the space above write what or who you find it difficult to empathise with?